

Please join us:

Protecting Families Conference

Friday, October 16, 2015

7:45 AM - Registration

8:30 AM – 4:30 PM – Program

Fee $50.00

Sioux City Convention Center, 801 Fourth Street, Downtown Sioux City, Iowa

Sponsored by Mercy Medical Center – Sioux City

To register, visit www.mercysiouxcity.com/classes-events or e-mail
MercyEducation@mercyhealth.com

Speakers: Scott Modell, PhD, Deputy Commissioner of the Department of Children's Services, State of Tennessee and Michael Weber, Investigator Special Victims Unit, Tarrant County DA, Fort Worth, Texas

Accreditation: No partial credit will be given

Nurses: Upon completion of the entire program, each nursing participant will receive .78 CEUs by Mercy Medical Center-Sioux City, Iowa Board of Nursing Provider #56

Physicians: Mercy Medical Center- Sioux City is accredited by the Iowa Medical Society to provide continuing medical education for physicians. Mercy Medical Center-Sioux City designates this educational activity with 6.25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits TM Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Others: It is the licensee's responsibility to determine if the continuing education program meets the requirements of one's professional licensure board. At the conclusion of the entire conference, a certificate for 6.5 clock hours of attendance will be awarded.

Agenda

7:30 am CHECK-IN & ON-SITE REGISTRATION

8:15 am WELCOME

8:30 am Child Victims with Disabilities

Provides an overview of the differences between children with and without disabilities
Scott Modell PhD

10:00 am BREAK

10:15 am Child Victims with Disabilities

Describes the characteristics of children with disabilities that increase their risk for child abuse
Scott Modell PhD

12:00 pm LUNCH

1:00 pm The Poison of a Mother's Love: The Hope Ybarra Investigation

Describes the multidisciplinary tasks needed to complete a medical child abuse investigation
Michael Weber, Investigator Special Victim's Unit Tarrant County DA's

2:30 pm BREAK

2:45 pm The Poison of a Mother's Love: The Hope Ybarra Investigation

Outlines characteristics of offenders and what motivates their behavior
Michael Weber, Investigator Special Victim's Unit Tarrant County DA's

4:15 pm Conclusion, Evaluations and Awarding of Continuing Education Credit

Visit www.mercysiouxcity.com/professional-education for upcoming conferences and brochures which are continually updated.